From the Rector

By Father Jerry Thompson

Dear Friends,

Recently Carol and I were cleaning out the garage, and preparing it so that her car would fit into it during the winter. Of course we had let the task go longer than was ideal, so we grabbed the opportunity when mother nature gave us a 60 degree day in the midst of days regularly falling in the 30 and 40 degree range. I've cleaned the garage alone sometimes in the past, and I was struck by how much more I enjoyed the task doing it together with Carol (as is true about most things in my life!).

As we were hoisting ladders onto walls and moving bicycles down to the basement and sweeping leaves off the garage floor, I found myself thinking of Advent.

Advent is a time of preparation, too, as we prepare for the coming of Christ. We don't know all that Christ's coming will bring any more than we know what winter will bring.

Scripture provides us with lots of images, of course, as a way of living into a reality that will one day come upon us "like a thief in the night," a storm that seems to come out of nowhere and brings with it more than we expect.

Many of those scriptural images have to do with preparation. Preparing ourselves now so that we're more ready when the time comes. Some of that preparation is a solitary task, as we explore with God the movements of our individual hearts. And some of it is corporate, where together we form communities of shared fellowship and shared preparation, communities that reflect the reign of God in which we long to live fully one day – and in which God promises we will live.

I pray that we have a blessed Advent as we look ahead to the coming of Christ,

Fr. Jerry +

THE DEACON'S DOOR by Christine Grosh

Deacon's Activities: great conversations, CPR & first aid classes at Bryan Hospital, Annual Council and a painfully honest but lovely book about ministry found at the public library: Here If You Need Me by Kate Braestrup.

The Presiding Bishop will be at the Qwest Center in Omaha on March 27th for dinner and dialogue about the Tri-Faith Initiative. Perhaps you've read in the Nebraska Episcopalian about this Initiative to build a worship center that will include space for Muslims, Jews and Christians. At Annual Council we met the executive director of the Tri-Faith Initiative. She would like to have students volunteer to help that day. We'll keep you posted as we learn more about the event and how we can help.

The Rector Speaks

About Annual Council

Diocesan Annual Council is a gathering each year of all the parishes within the diocese, comprised of all clergy and lay representatives from every parish. Together we celebrate the work of the diocesan family, conduct business, elect people to bodies that continue working in between councils, and offer the opportunity for people who don't see each other that often to reconnect.

This year St. Mark's on the Campus gave a presentation about Campus Ministry, both as a way to inform the diocesan family and to highlight it as a diocesan ministry, not simply a parish ministry. Other highlights included:

- ✘ The Bishop informing the Council that Executive Commission is considering forming a diocesan Commission for Campus Ministry
  - ✘ The announcement that a full-time Youth and Young Adult Minister will be added to diocesan staff
  - ✘ The publicizing of an effort by a youth within the diocese to raise funds for Free Wheelchair Mission, an organization that provides free wheelchairs worldwide to those in need. Each chair costs the donor only approximately $53.
  - ✘ The announcement that a Deacon within the diocese, Betsy Bennett, is establishing "Green Sprouts," a diocesan effort to move parishes to go green
  - ✘ Informing the diocesan family that a legal motion had been filed earlier that week to claim the property of St. Barnabas in Omaha, which is leaving The Episcopal Church.
  - ✘ The announcement that the first public event of the Tri-Faith Initiative will take place on March 27, 2009, when the Presiding Bishop and leaders from the Jewish and Muslim faiths will gather in Omaha for worship and a public dinner and forum
  - ✘ The announcement that the Presiding Bishop will be visiting the diocese in late October 2009 or late March 2010 for several days of events.
- Next year's Council will be held in North Platte November 6-8. If you are interested in attending as a delegate from SMOC, please contact Fr. Thompson.

ADULT FORUM INVITATION

A Scenario: You've accepted Jesus as your Savior, you've committed to participation in the life of the church, developed a working knowledge of the Bible, giving alms, praying and serving. What do you have to look forward to?

Answer: Spiritual growth, and perhaps even a Divine Inner Marriage. Come to Adult Forum in Advent to learn and discuss.

Warning:

The Following Might Not Be Suitable for Children.

I have news for you: the church usually does not do things like normal people do things.

One example of this is that the calendar of the church year is slightly different than the normal everyday calendar. The beginning of the church year does not start on January 1st, but rather on the first Sunday of Advent. Advent originally evolved as a Lenten-like period of fasting and waiting for the coming of the Christ child on Christmas. The idea of an Advent fast has largely ceased in America, probably in no small part due to the fact that secular Christmas has become a month long holiday extravaganza of cookies, candy, and all out Yuletide celebrations - beginning some time around or before Thanksgiving.

If you ask children (young or old) to name some things that come to mind when you say the word "Christmas," the name and person of Santa Claus is likely to be at the top, or near the top, of any such list. American Santa Claus is decked out in red with a white, poofy ball on the end of an oddly pointy elf hat. He's always carrying a big bag of toys, and as the traditional depiction goes, rides around in a sleigh led by flying reindeer and goes down chimneys on Christmas Eve to deliver gifts to the good - and lumps of coal and switches to the bad - boys and girls.

Many people (usually grumpy adults) think that Santa Claus is simply a myth made up to foster greed and avarice in young children who are vulnerable to the materialistic excesses of our culture. Perhaps, in some way, contemporary Santa Claus has turned into that, but I would argue that there is nothing particularly wrong with contemporary Santa Claus as you see him in his original form. He's a jolly old tradition, and (believe it or not) is not nearly as secular a figure as you might think. In his original form, in fact, he and his message are actually one of Christianity's enduring legacies to our culture.

The other name for Santa Claus belies his origins in Christianity: Saint Nick, or more properly Saint Nicholas. Saint Nicholas was a Christian bishop in modern day Turkey who lived from around AD 270 to December 6th, 343. The 6th of December is still commemorated as his feast day on the church's calendar. St. Nicholas is remembered for many miracles, and is known in iconography as St. Nicholas the Wonder Worker.

Perhaps the most famous story that church tradition gives to us is of the good bishop's charitable work concerning three daughters whose father had no dowry and were facing the strong possibility of having to live on the streets. To save both the daughters and the father from the shame of having to accept charity, Nicholas under the cover of darkness threw three bags of gold coins into the window of the house where the family lived.

Much of what we see in contemporary depictions of Santa Claus is derived from his Christian history. One later version of the story tells of Nicholas throwing the bags of coins down the chimney, from which we get the modern story of Santa Claus coming down the chimney on Christmas Eve. Likewise, you can see if you stand up the stereotypical Santa hat that it has a strong resemblance to the pointy hat (called a miter) that the bishop wears when he visits. Even the color red is a derivative of the imperial colors that bishops of this era wore, as can be seen in many Orthodox icons depicting Saint Nicholas. Even the name of "Santa Claus" is the early American colonial attempt that subsequently stuck at pronouncing the name Sinterklaas, which is the Dutch word for Saint Nicholas.

Thus, when your children begin to think they are too old for Santa Claus, or Sinterklaas, or Saint Nicholas, and that he is not real, you do not have to lie to them because Saint Nicholas is very real and is still praying for us, that we might likewise show generosity to those who need our help and to do so not for our own glory but the greater glory of God in thanksgiving for the coming of the incarnation, the Christ child we will all soon celebrate who brings with him our redemption.

This Advent, I invite you to reflect on the true meaning of Saint Nicholas' life and mission as a Christian, a mission I think we would be hard pressed not to adopt as our own and is best summed up by the collect prayer for the Feast Day of Saint Nicholas:

"Almighty God, in your love you gave your servant Nicholas of Myra a perpetual name for deeds of kindness both on land and sea: Grant, we pray, that your Church may never cease to work for the happiness of children, the safety of sailors, the relief of the poor, and the help of those tossed by tempests of doubt or grief; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen."

BREAKING NEWS

St. Mark's on the Campus will have a special meeting for all parishiners to discuss the situation with the budget for 2009. It will be held after the 12:00 service on Dec. 14th in the lounge. It is necessary to hold this important meeting prior to the Vestry meeting on December 17th, in which the 2009 budget will be presented. All are encouraged to attend and provide input.

CALLING ALL ST. MARK'S PROFESSORS AND T.A.'S

SMOC is blessed with many professors and TA's in the congregation -- math, physics, English, music, religion -- we've got quite the braintrust! As you know, we're rapidly approaching the end of the school year and the holidays. What better gift could you give UNL students than two hours of your time to help them prepare for their final exams or papers? (OK, your students would say an A+ is a better gift, but just ignore them).

We hope to hold a "tutoring blitz" here at St. Mark's one night during Dead Week or Finals. All of our professors would show up one night to provide tutoring to any student who shows up. We'll advertise it on campus and the UNL listserv. We'll provide you and them with free food, drinks, coffee, and WiFi. All you have to do is show up from 7-9pm.

If you're interested in giving two hours of your time for this service, please email me at kgrey2@unl.edu with: your name, the nights during Finals or Dead Week you would be free (we'll only schedule one blitz night, so it would be helpful to have more than one option from each of you), and the general subject area you teach.

Thank you! Kelly Grey Carlisle

We will be open extra nights during Dead Week (Sun, Dec 7th thru Thurs, Dec 11th) and each night of Finals Week (Sun, Dec 14th thru Thurs, Dec 18th).

The Study Lounge is in need of snacks in individual servings such as Chex Mix, yogurt, chips, and other munchies - especially for these critical study times.

If you would like to be one of our Study Lounge volunteers, please sign up on the office door (including a cell phone and email address where you can be reached) or contact Kelly at kgrey2@unl.edu.

MARK-US NOTES

DESSERT POTLUCK

Coffee hour on Christmas Eve will include a dessert potluck after each service. Please bring your favorite dessert to share!

BIBLE STUDY WITH SIDNIE

Join us after the 10:30 Eucharist on Dec 7th, and Dec 21st as we continue our study of St. Paul's letter to the Romans.

MEN'S BREAKFAST

The next gathering of the Mens Breakfast Group will be on Saturday Dec 20th. We will be reading "Surprised by Hope" by N.T. Wright.

FOOD PANTRY

Thank you to everyone, who helped with the needs for the Pantry. The shelves are fairly full again and it is because of the response we got from our plea for help. In this time when everything is more expensive, I really appreciate your adding the Pantry needs to your own. Do check the website periodically, as we may again run into some hard times.

Have you ever thought you might like to help out at the Gathering Place but never done anything about it? If so, now is the time to let us know. We could use 2-4 more volunteers for our Tuesday night serving at the Gathering Place. It is an easy volunteer job. You only serve once a quarter and that work lasts from 5:00 p.m. until about 6:30 p.m. If you are interested, please contact Anne Puls at 483-6860 or the church office, 474-1979.

HOLIDAY HUGS WELCOME

During Advent, St. Mark's will once again collect hats, underwear, gloves, and socks (HUGS). Mittens and scarves are welcome, too. Your warmth--and theirs-- will be much appreciated by the people staying at the City Mission. Donation boxes are located near the church entrance and in the lounge.

BOOK CLUB

St. Mark's Book Discussion Group does not meet in December. We will start up again in January on the 18th. We will meet at Susan Steinegger's at 601 Mulder Dr. at 3:00. The book to be discussed is The 13th Tale by Diane Setterfield.

Dec Birthdays

- 01 - Pamela Starr
- 02 - Bob Stock
  - Richard DeFusco
- 05 - Michael Fairchild
- 07 - Alexander Vannorsdall
- 09 - Hunter von Holt
- 11 - Shana Durham
- 15 - Taavi Cyd Sirota
- 21 - Lucy Webster
- 22- Mark Sellmyer
- 23 - Don Tilley
- 25 - Don Gray
- 30 - Pat Talbott

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

to use the snow blowing machine to remove snow from the walkways before 9:00 am on weekdays and before 8:00 am Sunday mornings. Please contact the office if you are available to provide this assistance.

DELIVERY OF BROWNIES

delivery of pre-ordered Sand Art Brownies will be Dec 14th. A small number of extra jars will be available for sale along with items made by 3-5th grade. A thank you to Russ's, HyVee, Super Saver and WalMart for donations.

MEMORIAL WINDOWS

Julee Lowe's has been accepted, and will add color to the nave and sanctuary windows. YOU can participate in this project. Each of the sixteen Memorial Windows will cost $2000. For this, you would be the sole designator to name a memorial window. You can also designate a portion of a memorial window for $500 or multiples thereof. Ten (and one quarter) windows have already been committed to. For more information on this project contact Bob Kuzelka by email rkuzelka1@unl.edu, or phone 475-0221.

MINISTRY FAIR

St Marks on the Campus Needs You!!!

Have you considered becoming an Acolyte, Usher, or performing another service for the church? Do you know what's available and where your talents might be used? On Sunday, December 7th, we will hold a Ministry Fair in the Lounge before and after the 10:30 Eucharist. We will ask you to complete a survey about the ministries you are currently involved in - and what you might be interested in doing in the future. Various lay ministries will be represented, and you will have the opportunity to ask questions and sign up to become involved. There are many ways you can help - please join us on Dec 7th to find out which works best for you!

BOOKS ! BOOKS ! BOOKS !

It is that time again! As you enter the holiday season, create a little room in your life by sorting through the accumulation of books in your abode. Select those you wish to share with others, pack them up and bring them to St. Mark's, in order for us to have them for our annual book sale. Place them in the little room off the undercroft.

Thank you. Andrea Nelson and David Pitts, Book Sale Committee .
